

Spend the perfect family holiday in Paris

Family Twist is the specialist family travel agency that aims to provide parents and their little ones with the greatest possible trip to Paris.

By taking out all the hassle of visiting a new city, especially for those who don't speak the language, Family Twist allows you to focus on the thing that matters most to you – building lifelong memories together with your children in this remarkable city.

Once you are safely checked into your pre-booked, family-friendly hotel after an airport transfer with an English-speaking driver, an exclusive range of specially designed family activities await. Enjoy treasure hunts around the Louvre or amazing interactive walking tours around the city's medieval quarter following the footsteps of knights – fun and enlightening for kids and parents alike!

After that, how about something a bit more hands on? Painting classes, bread-baking sessions or French language lessons in a local café can all be organised by Family Twist.

You and your kids will come face to face with the wonders of French culture without any of the fuss, sharing an unforgettable time in one of the world's most exciting cities!
