

Bespoke family holidays

Family Twist takes care of every detail, making sure your family break in Paris is truly unforgettable

Family Twist is a unique travel agency designed to meet the needs of parents looking for a truly memorable holiday in Paris with their children. By removing all of the hassle and time-consuming aspects associated with trips abroad, Family Twist allows busy parents to focus on enjoying the City of Light and building wonderful family memories together.

Tailor-made trips

Any business traveller will appreciate the excitement and the challenges of visiting a foreign city. Both the highs and the lows are amplified when young children are factored in, and very specific questions need to be addressed. Will there be activities that each generation will find entertaining and stimulating? How does one negotiate the local transport networks? What guarantee is there that the accommodation will be suitable for children?

Family Twist understands all of these requirements and has developed an exclusive range of services and options for parents to choose from. To save you time and inconvenience, Family Twist is able to book transfers upon arrival, with English-speaking drivers and appropriate car seats for young children. Prior to your trip, you can select from an array of rooms or connected suites at centrally located luxury hotels. Your accommodation will act as a launch pad for the unique cultural and fun-filled activities that Family Twist has to offer; your kids can enjoy everything from bread-making classes to impressionist art lessons. Other tailor-made activities include interactive beginner's French lessons, medieval tours, or treasure hunts round the city's world-renowned museums and galleries.
